HEAD MASTERSHIP.

The Head Mastership of this School is now vacant, owing to the death of the late Head Master, the Rev. F. Heppenshall. The Governors will now appoint a new Head Master. The School has been reformed under a scheme of the Endowed Schools Commission, and is a Classical School of the First Grade. The stipend of the Head Master is thus regulated by the scheme:—The Head Master shall receive a fixed stipend of £209 a year. He shall also receive head money, calculated on such a scale uniform or graduated as may be agreed upon between himself and the Governors, being at the rate of not less than £4 nor more than £8 a year for each boy.

N.B.—The head money is for the present fixed at £4 per scholar in the School. The Head Master will have the use of the Head Master's house, which is capable of accommodating 40 Boarders. There are also two other Boarding Houses, one to accommodate 40 Boarders, the other 30. In addition to the former School, which has been thoroughly remodelled, new Class-rooms are ready for use. There has been an expenditure of £11,000 on the Head Master's house alone.

The Governors will from time to time fix the payments for Boarders, which, exclusive of tuition fee, cannot, under the scheme, exceed £55 yearly. The Governors now sanction the full charge of £55 yearly.

The Head Master must be a graduate of some University within the British Empire.

Each Candidate is requested to state his age, his University and College, the year in which he graduated, and (with precision) his place in the Class List, and if married or single.

Preference will be given to Candidates whose age does not exceed 35. Applicants are requested to send their testimonials to Mr. W. Robinson, Solicitor, Sedburgh, Yorkshire, Clerk to the Governors, not later than October 1st, 1879.

"The reader will follow with eager interest this touching romance."

World.

"Mr. Wingfield has produced an historical novel which is an admirable blending of dramatic effect and fidelity to actual events. The ideas acquired by close study and by the aid of a vigorous imagination are transformed into living realities."

Daily Telegraph.

"The personages in this book are drawn with consummate power, and there have been few novels of recent years more distinguished by conscientious care and elaboration in the treatment of a worthy subject."

Athenaeum.

"A novel of a high order of merit . . . one of the best fictions of the day."

Home News.

"An admirably written and well-conceived novel. Mr. Wingfield has exercised rare discrimination; he has not only read, but assimilated; not only drawn, but created."

World.

"There is a brightness and freshness about the book which never fails nor flags. There is a clear conception of character; and there is constantly visible a resolution to draw from nature and not from those conventional types which are the stock-in-trade of the ordinary novelist."

Morning Post.

"A new aspirant for literary fame has appeared on the scene and scored a decided success. Miss Coxon has written a charming novel. The plot, style and diction, and pathos have all a freshness and originality we rarely meet with. We cordially recommend 'Monsieur Love.'"

C. KEGAN PAUL & CO.'S LIST.

GUIENNE: Notes of an Autumn Tour. By ALGERNON TAYLOR. Crown 8vo, cloth, price 4s. 6d.

Second Edition.

TRAVELS with a DONKEY in the CEVENNES. By ROBERT LOUIS STEVENSON, Author of "An Inland Voyage," &c. With Frontispiece by Walter Crane. Crown 8vo, cloth, price 7s. 6d.

"Mr. Stevenson's writing is as elegant as ever, but it is more natural, and the phrases of humour and the parenthesis of fine reflection have grown with the growth of the narrative. There is the same sympathy with humanity, the same power to read the 'red-leaved and confused book of the heart,' the same happy flight of quaint and original fun. . . . It is remarkable that on so slight a thread so many jewels of thought and fancy can be hung."—Saturday Review.

"Mr. Stevenson's narrative is very pleasant. . . . All people who know something of the abundance of original interest which still exists in France, and all who do not, should read this book. It will feed the pleasures of memory in the one class, and, we hope, those of anticipation in the other. There is room in the out-of-the-way parts of the country for plenty of tourists for many years to come, but they must be appreciative and not over particular."—Athenaeum.

A NOOK in the APENNINES: a Summer

BENEATH the CHESTNUTS. By LEADER SCOTT, Author of "The Painter's Ordeal," &c. With Frontispiece and Twenty-seven Illustrations in the Text, chiefly from Original Sketches. Crown 8vo, cloth, price 7s. 6d.

"The writer's style is as light as her subjects are lively. We hope we have done something to recommend an entertaining little volume which seems to reflect most faithfully the life it describes."—Saturday Review.

GOTTLÖB, ET CETERA. By William YOUNG, Author of "Songs of Bréanger." Small crown 8vo, cloth, price 3s. 6d.

The BROOK: a Poem. By Sophia Lydia WALTERS, Author of "A Dreamer's Sketch-book." Small crown 8vo, cloth, price 3s. 6d.

POEMS of RURAL LIFE, in the Dorset Dialect. By WILLIAM BARNES. New Edition, complete in 1 vol. Crown 8vo, cloth, price 8s. 6d.

"To the lover of Nature in her sweetest aspects there is a charm in the name of this book. . . . Mr. Barnes is unquestionably the greatest English pastoral poet."—Athenaeum.

"It is not necessary to recommend so great a favourite to the reading public, but it may at least be said that nowhere can Mr. Barnes, as a poet, be so conveniently studied as in this beautiful edition."—Academy.

OFF the SKELLIGS: a Novel. By Jean INGHLOW. Second Edition, with Frontispiece. Crown 8vo, cloth, price 6s.

"In this single-volume form the novel will be most welcome to many readers, and may find its way to the shelves of family libraries where otherwise it would not have been seen; and when it is seen and read it will be enjoyed, for the tale is breezy, healthy, and full of good teaching without preaching."—Academy.

RALPH DARNELL. By the late Colonel MEADOWS TAYLOR, Author of "Tara," "Confessions of a Thug," &c. New and cheaper Edition, with Frontispiece. Crown 8vo, cloth, price 6s.

"In its present one-volume form it will be accessible to many readers who could not have seen it otherwise, and they will be delighted. It is fiction of a far higher character than that generally forthcoming."—Scotsman.

EXEMPLA LATINA: a First Construing Book, with short Notices, Lexicon, and an Introduction to the Analysis of Sentences. By F. GLOVER, M.A., Exeter College, Oxford. Fcap. 8vo, cloth, price 2s.

MODERN CHROMATICS. With Applications to Art and Industry. By OGDEN N. ROOD, Professor of Physics in Columbia College, U.S.A. With 130 Original Illustrations. Crown 8vo, cloth, price 5s. Vol. XXVII. of "The International Scientific Series."

"Professor Rood has done good service both to science and art by publishing his present work on colour, in which he collects the remarks of the most recent observations by others, and adds to them some valuable contributions of his own."—Saturday Review.

"Professor Rood has produced a work which can be read with profit and pleasure by the artist as well as by the man of science, while even those who are quite ignorant of the study of chromatics may learn much from its pages."—Saturday Review.

Third Edition.

FREE-TRADE in LAND. By Joseph KAY, M.A., Q.C., of Trinity College, Cambridge, Author of "The Law Relating to Shipmasters and Seamen." Edited by his Widow. With Preface by the Right Hon. JOHN BRIGHT, M.P. Crown 8vo, cloth, price 5s.

"The production of a thoughtful, diligent student, and of an earnest, liberal-minded politician. . . . We are bound to admit, after a careful perusal of Mr. Kay's work, that we have nothing to subtract from it. Mr. Kay is always just; he is well informed, and, although he is enthusiastic, he is accurate."—Academy.
